

IROQUOIS FUND MASTER, LTD

July 24, 2017

Dear Fellow Shareholder:

Iroquois Master Fund, Ltd., together with its affiliates (“Iroquois” or “we”), are the beneficial owners of an aggregate of 1,324,742 shares of the Class A Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the “Common Stock”) of Real Goods Solar, Inc., a Colorado corporation (“RGSE” or the “Company”), including shares issuable upon the exercise of certain warrants which are subject to a blocker provision. For the reasons set forth in the attached Proxy Statement, we believe immediate leadership change is required at RGSE to address the Company’s stock underperformance, contracting margins, and lack of alignment with shareholder interests. We further believe that immediate changes to the composition of the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) are necessary in order to ensure there exists a shareholder-focused mindset in the boardroom and that the Company is being run in a manner consistent with shareholders’ best interests. Unfortunately, to date, the Board has been unwilling to embrace the level of change that we believe is required to put the Company on the right path towards shareholder value creation.

We are therefore seeking your support to WITHHOLD ALL votes from the re-election of the Company’s slate of incumbent director nominees, Ian Bowles, John Schaeffer, Robert L. Scott, Pavel Bouska and Dennis Lacey, at the Company’s 2017 annual meeting of shareholders scheduled to be held on August 23, 2017, at 10:00A.M., local time, at the Holiday Inn Express, 401 17th Street, Denver, Colorado 80202 (including any adjournments or postponements thereof and any meeting which may be called in lieu thereof, the “Annual Meeting”). By WITHHOLDING ALL votes from the Company’s slate of incumbent director nominees, the persons we believe are most responsible for the Company’s history of poor performance and the lack of accountability at RGSE, shareholders will be sending a strong message to the Board that they are dissatisfied with the status quo and that meaningful change is required. Our proxy solicitation is a platform for shareholders to express their views regarding RGSE and influence the Board with respect to any decisions regarding Board composition at the Company.

Iroquois is frustrated and dismayed by what we view as a transparent attempt by the Board to manipulate the Company’s corporate machinery to block shareholder voices. The Company had previously disclosed in its 2016 proxy statement a shareholder nomination deadline of August 28, 2017 for the upcoming Annual Meeting. Accordingly, we were preparing to take the initial steps in furtherance of nominating a slate of highly qualified directors by such deadline. We were deeply disturbed to learn of the Company’s action to trigger an immediate ten-day nomination window on June 23, 2017 and thereby disenfranchise shareholders and entrench the Board. Ten calendar days is entirely insufficient for the work involved in identifying and vetting director nominees, and then preparing the nomination notice required under the Company’s Bylaws. By purposely accelerating its nomination deadline to July 4, 2017, giving shareholders only ten calendar days to submit nominations, we believe the Board is attempting to eschew its responsibility for the Company’s failing performance by eliminating the possibility of an election contest at the 2017 Annual Meeting. We will not stand idly by while the Company’s performance continues to decline and the Board takes steps to further entrench itself by effectively disenfranchising shareholders.

While we note that the election of directors at RGSE requires only the vote of a plurality of the shares present in person, or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting, we believe it would be inappropriate for any director to continue to serve on the Board if such director failed to receive a majority of the votes cast for his election and in direct opposition to a clear shareholder directive.

Our interests are fully aligned with the interests of all RGSE shareholders. We believe there is significant value to be realized at the Company. Given the Company’s track record of severe underperformance, lack of alignment with shareholders and poor corporate governance under the oversight of the current Board, we strongly believe that the Board must be reconstituted to ensure that the interests of the shareholders, the true owners of RGSE, are appropriately represented in the boardroom, and that the Board takes the necessary steps to help the Company’s shareholders realize maximum value for their investment.

We urge you to carefully consider the information contained in the attached Proxy Statement and then support our efforts by signing, dating and returning the enclosed BLUE proxy card today. The attached Proxy Statement and the enclosed BLUE proxy card are first being furnished to the shareholders on or about July 24, 2017.

If you have already voted for the incumbent management slate, you have every right to change your vote by signing, dating and returning the enclosed BLUE proxy card or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

If you have any questions or require any assistance with your vote, please contact Innisfree M&A Incorporated, which is assisting us, at its address and toll-free numbers listed on the following page.

PROXY STATEMENT OF IROQUOIS MASTER FUND LTD.

PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND MAIL THE ENCLOSED BLUE PROXY CARD TODAY

Iroquois Master Fund Ltd. (“Iroquois Master Fund”), Iroquois Capital Investment Group LLC (“ICIG”), Iroquois Capital Management, LLC (“Iroquois Capital”), Richard Abbe, Kimberly Page (collectively, “Iroquois”, “we,” “our” or “us”) are significant shareholders of Real Goods Solar, Inc., a Colorado corporation (“RGSE” or the “Company”), beneficially owning 1,324,742 shares of the Company’s Class A Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the “Common Stock”), including shares of Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of certain warrants of the Company which are subject to a blocker provision.

We are seeking your support at the annual meeting of shareholders scheduled to be held on August 23, 2017, at 10:00 A.M., local time, at the Holiday Inn Express, 401 17th Street, Denver, Colorado 80202 (including any adjournments or postponements thereof and any meeting which may be called in lieu thereof, the “Annual Meeting”), to WITHHOLD ALL votes from the election of the Company’s slate of incumbent director nominees, Ian Bowles, John Schaeffer, Robert L. Scott, Pavel Bouska and Dennis Lacey, to the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”).

Our BLUE proxy card will also allow shareholders to vote on the following proposals that are being presented by the Company for shareholder consideration at the Annual Meeting:

- The approval of an amendment to the Company’s 2008 Long-Term Incentive Plan to increase the number of shares authorized for issuance and the number of shares that a participant may receive in a fiscal year;
- The ratification of the appointment of Hein & Associates LLP as the Company’s independent auditors for the 2017 fiscal year; and
- Such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Iroquois Master Fund, ICIG, Iroquois Capital, Mr. Abbe and Ms. Page (collectively, the “Iroquois Capital Group”) are deemed participants in this proxy solicitation. As of the date hereof, the members of the Iroquois Capital Group are the beneficial owners of an aggregate of 1,324,742 shares of Common Stock consisting of (i) 288,290 shares of Common Stock, (ii) 1,036,149 shares of Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of certain warrants of the Company subject to a 4.99% blocker provision (the “4.99% Warrants”) and (iii) 303 shares of Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of certain warrants of the Company subject to a 9.99% blocker provision (the “9.99% Warrants” and together with the 4.99% Warrants, the “Warrants”), without giving effect to the respective blocker provision included in the Certificate of Designations governing the Warrants (the “Blockers”), which prohibit the holders thereof from exercising the Warrants to the extent that the holders thereof would beneficially own, after any such exercise, more than 4.99% or 9.99%, as the case may be, of the outstanding shares of Common Stock.

Accordingly, as of the date hereof, the Iroquois Capital Group was the beneficial owner of approximately 4.99% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, including shares issuable upon the exercise of the Warrants. The Iroquois Capital Group intends to WITHHOLD ALL votes from the election of the Company's slate of director nominees (the "RGSE Nominees"), vote AGAINST the approval of an amendment to the Company's Long-Term Incentive Plan to increase the number of shares authorized for issuance and the number of shares that a participant may receive in a fiscal year, and ABSTAIN on the ratification of the appointment of Hein & Associates LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the 2017 fiscal year as described herein, with respect to all of the shares of Common Stock it may be deemed to beneficially own, subject to the Blockers.

Please note that the RGSE Nominees are not the nominees of Iroquois and have not consented to be named in this Proxy Statement. Because the RGSE Nominees are not Iroquois' nominees and have not consented to be named in this Proxy Statement, they are not participants in this solicitation. We can provide no assurance that any of the RGSE Nominees will serve as directors if elected.

The Company has set the close of business on July 6, 2017 as the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting (the "Record Date"). The mailing address of the principal executive offices of the Company is 110 16th Street, Suite 300, Denver, Colorado 80202. Shareholders of record at the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. According to the Company, as of the Record Date, there were 7,480,906 shares of Common Stock outstanding.

THIS SOLICITATION IS BEING MADE BY IROQUOIS AND NOT ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OR MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY. WE ARE NOT AWARE OF ANY OTHER MATTERS TO BE BROUGHT BEFORE THE ANNUAL MEETING OTHER THAN AS SET FORTH IN THIS PROXY STATEMENT. SHOULD OTHER MATTERS, WHICH IROQUOIS IS NOT AWARE OF A REASONABLE TIME BEFORE THIS SOLICITATION, BE BROUGHT BEFORE THE ANNUAL MEETING, THE PERSON NAMED AS PROXY IN THE ENCLOSED BLUE PROXY CARD WILL VOTE ON SUCH MATTERS IN HIS DISCRETION.

IROQUOIS URGES YOU TO SIGN, DATE AND RETURN THE BLUE PROXY CARD TO WITHHOLD ALL VOTES FROM THE ELECTION OF THE COMPANY'S SLATE OF NOMINEES, IAN BOWLES, JOHN SCHAEFFER, ROBERT L. SCOTT, PAVEL BOUSKA AND DENNIS LACEY, TO THE BOARD AT THE ANNUAL MEETING.

Background to the Solicitation

The following is a chronology of our involvement at RGSE to date and the material events leading up to this proxy solicitation.

- On March 2, 2015, the Company began a process of reorganization and realignment under a new operational model designed to leverage core strengths while reducing non-core overhead. The reorganization plan reduced headcount by 30% (100 positions) over the following few months.
- On March 16, 2015, the Company announced that it would be unable to file its annual report on Form 10-K as required by the SEC.
- On April 14, 2015, the Company received a letter from the Nasdaq Stock Market ("NASDAQ"), notifying the Company that it was no longer in compliance with Listing Rule 5550(b)(2) because the minimum market value of the Company's Common Stock fell below $35 million for the thirty (30) business days between February 24, 2015 and April 13, 2015.
- On May 12, 2015, the Company held a Special Shareholder Meeting to consider a proposed reversed stock split of all outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock at a specified ratio between 1:2 to 1:20.
- On August 17, 2015, the Company received notification from NASDAQ that it regained compliance with NASDAQ Rules.
- On March 30, 2016, a little more than one year from the previous announcement, the Company again announced that it would be unable to file its annual report on Form 10-K as required by the SEC.
- On April 14, 2016, the Company received another letter from NASDAQ notifying the Company that it was no longer in compliance with NASDAQ's Listing Rule 5550(b)(1) due to the Company's failure to maintain a minimum of $2,500,000 in stockholders' equity ,or meet the alternatives of market value of listed securities or net income from continuing operations.
- On August 15, 2016, the Company announced that it would be unable to file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q as required by the SEC. Based on the Company's guidance, it expected $4.9 million in revenue in contrast to $14.7 million in revenue for the same period the previous year.
- On October 17, 2016, NASDAQ notified the Company that it would be subject to delisting unless it requested a hearing before a NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Panel. The Company requested a hearing.
- On December 20, 2016, the Company received a notification from NASDAQ stating that for the last thirty (30) consecutive business days, the bid price of the Company's Common Stock had closed below the minimum $1.00 per share requirement for continued listing on NASDAQ. If it appears to NASDAQ that the Company will not be able to cure the deficiency during a second compliance period, or if the Company is otherwise not eligible, NASDAQ will provide notice that the Company's securities will be subject to delisting.

- On December 20, 2016, the Iroquois Group filed a Schedule 13G.
- On February 14, 2017, the Iroquois Group filed an exit Schedule 13G.
- On May 10, 2017, the Company reported First Quarter 2017 results and fielded just one question from a friendly banker on the Company's earnings conference call.
- On May 23, 2017, as part of what Iroquois believes is an ill-fated growth strategy, the Company entered into an agreement with Mobomo ("Mobomo"), LLC, a company controlled by the son of the Company's CEO, Dennis Lacey, in which the Company agreed to pay Mobomo a total fee of $516,000 and to reimburse Mobomo's out-of-pocket expenses.
- On June 2, 2017, the Company convened a special meeting of shareholders to amend the 2008 Long-Term Incentive Plan and only 26.35% of the shares of the Company's Common Stock entitled to vote were present in person or by proxy at the meeting, resulting in a quorum of a majority of the shares entitled to vote at the meeting not being present. Accordingly, the Company ended the special meeting of shareholders without holding any vote or conducting any business.
- On June 12, 2017, David Belluck, the chairman of the Board, informed the Company that he would not seek reelection at the Annual Meeting.
- On June 22, 2017, the Board advanced the date of the Annual Meeting to August 23, 2017, more than 30 days from the first anniversary of the date of the 2016 annual meeting of shareholders, thereby substantially accelerating the deadline by which shareholders could submit business proposals and/or nominations to be considered at the Annual Meeting.
- On July 6, 2017, the Company filed its definitive proxy statement in connection with the Annual Meeting.
- On July 14, 2017, Iroquois filed its preliminary proxy statement in connection with the Annual Meeting.
- On July 21, 2017, Iroquois filed its revised preliminary proxy statement in connection with the Annual Meeting.
- On July 24, 2017, Iroquois filed its definitive proxy statement in connection with the Annual Meeting.

REASONS FOR THE SOLICITATION

WE BELIEVE IT IS TIME FOR CERTAIN MEMBERS OF THE BOARD TO BE HELD ACCOUNTABLE FOR THE COMPANY'S POOR PERFORMANCE AND SUBSTANTIAL SHAREHOLDER VALUE DESTRUCTION

We are soliciting shareholders to WITHHOLD ALL votes from the election of the Company's slate of incumbent directors, Ian Bowles, John Schaeffer, Robert L. Scott, Pavel Bouska and Dennis Lacey, at the Annual Meeting because we believe it will send a strong message to the Board that shareholders are dissatisfied with the Board's failure to hold management accountable for the Company's track record of poor performance, misalignment of interests and destruction of substantial shareholder value, as described in more detail below.

We are seeking the support of RGSE shareholders to help send the Board a clear message that the status quo is unacceptable and that meaningful change to the composition of the Board is necessary to drive substantial shareholder value creation. For the reasons set forth below, we urge shareholders to WITHHOLD ALL votes from the election of Ian Bowles, John Schaeffer, Robert L. Scott, Pavel Bouska and Dennis Lacey to the Board at the Annual Meeting.

We are Concerned with the Company's Growth Strategy and Absence of Meaningful Results

We invested in the Company because we believe the stock represents compelling value. However, we are extremely concerned with the direction of the Company under the leadership of its current management team, who are responsible for what we believe is a flawed growth strategy. Although the Company has begun to increase its expenditures, Iroquois believes that such action will not yield projected top line growth. If history is any indicator, Iroquois believes that this is just another misstep in a long line of troubled decisions. For instance, since 2012, the Company's gross profit margin has steadily decreased from ~36.3% to ~10.8%. In addition, revenue has steadily decreased from ~$109 million in 2011 to ~$17 million in 2016, while the Company's cost of goods sold has fluctuated over the same period. To be frank, RGSE has not been profitable for seven out of the last eight years. It has consistently remained unprofitable since 2011 and its profit margin hit a lowest point over the past eight years at -145%, as of December 31, 2016. Other financial measures tell the same story. As of December 31, 2016, the Company's Return on Assets (RoA) as well as its Return on Equity (RoE), are at its lowest point over the past six years at -46% and -1,302.9%, respectively.

Put simply, we believe that RGSE cannot afford to take on further expenses under its current strategy, due to its dramatic decline in revenue and the clear trends within the solar industry. We are therefore in strong disagreement with RGSE management's current multi-market, high overhead expansion strategy in the residential solar space, where even much larger and efficient companies succumbed to market pressures (Sungevity, Inc. filed a petition for Chapter 11 bankruptcy, SolarCity Corporation was acquired by Tesla, Inc., and many others are going through consolidation and restructurings).

This begs the question, what is the Company trying to do? Without change, Iroquois is concerned that the Company has no viable future. A steadily decreasing (and negative) profitability, a lack of recent acquisitions, and what we believe is an absence of internal innovation, portends doom. There is no reason to think the downward trend will reverse itself, and shareholders must hold the Company accountable for abysmal total shareholder returns (TSR). The Company's 1-year TSR is -99.7%, and 3 and 5-year TSR is - 100%.

We Question the Company's Lack of Alignment with Shareholders

In addition to the Company's growth strategy woes and miscues in operations, management and the existing Board have shown little confidence in the Company and its future. As of the Company's 10-K filed on March 10, 2017, all directors and executive officers as a group own 2,937 shares, which represents approximately .04% of the shares outstanding, or as the Company puts it, "less than 1% ownership". In our view, this reveals that management and the Board are not aligned with shareholders and that they do not share our mentality as the true owners of the Company. If the Company fails, who cares? Certainly not Mr. Robert L. Scott, who recently sold his last ten (10) shares and now owns zero (0) shares of Common Stock. To be fair, some of management have partaken in recent de minimis purchases, but we have to question why not more? The stock is trading at a historical low, and we cannot help but wonder why management and the Board are not buying more stock at these depressed levels. Perhaps it has something to do with the Company's existing growth strategy.

We Believe the Company is Manipulating its Corporate Machinery to Disenfranchise Shareholders

On June 22, 2017, the Company announced that its 2017 Annual Meeting of Stockholders ("2017 Annual Meeting") would be held on August 23, 2017, which advanced the date of the 2017 Annual Meeting approximately three months compared to the Company's historical practice of holding its annual meetings in November. By scheduling the 2017 Annual Meeting more than 30 days before the first anniversary of the date of the Company's 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "2016 Annual Meeting"), the Company triggered an accelerated and immediate ten-day nomination deadline of July 4, 2017 under its advance notice bylaw provisions. Prior to this announcement, the Company had disclosed a nomination window of August 3, 2017 through August 28, 2017 for the 2017 Annual Meeting in its definitive proxy statement for the 2016 Annual Meeting filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on October 7, 2016. Iroquois is frustrated and dismayed by what we view as the Board's transparent attempt to manipulate the Company's corporate machinery to block shareholder voices. By purposely accelerating the nomination deadline to July 4, 2017, giving shareholders only ten days to submit nominations, and reporting the same erroneously in its Form 8-K filed on June 23, 2017,^[1] we believe the Board is attempting to eschew its responsibility for the Company's failing performance by eliminating the possibility of an election contest at the 2017 Annual Meeting.

We Believe the Board Should Be Held Accountable for the Company's Troubling Track Record and Destruction of Shareholder Value

We believe the current Board lacks a shareholder-focused mindset and question whether the Board is willing to make the difficult decisions necessary to hold management or itself accountable. Importantly, the poor stock price performance and alignment with shareholder interests and the apparent lack of accountability of both the Board and CEO, solidify our belief that material change in executive leadership and board composition are immediately required at RGSE. We believe with the right leadership, alignment of interests, and governance structures in place, the Company can deliver substantial value for all stakeholders.

For the reasons set forth above, we are seeking your support to WITHHOLD ALL votes from the election of Ian Bowles, John Schaeffer, Robert L. Scott, Pavel Bouska and Dennis Lacey to the Board at the Annual Meeting. By WITHHOLDING ALL votes from the election of the incumbent directors, we believe RGSE shareholders will send a strong message to the Board that they are dissatisfied with the status quo and that meaningful change to the Board is required to put the Company on the right path towards shareholder value creation.

While the Company does not have a director resignation policy in place for uncontested elections, whereby any director who receives a greater number of votes "against" his or her election than votes "for" his or her election must promptly tender his or her resignation to the Board, we believe your WITHHOLDING ALL votes from the election of the incumbent directors is critical as a referendum on the failure of the Board as stewards of shareholder value. Our proxy solicitation is an opportunity for you to express shareholder dissatisfaction with the Company's continued mismanagement and value destruction and the Board's failure to hold management accountable for such repeated failures. If our proxy solicitation results in any directors failing to receive a majority of the votes cast for his or her election, then we believe it would clearly be inappropriate for any such director to continue to serve on the Board.

^[1] The Form 8-K instructions issued by the SEC indicate that Item 5.08 is reserved for disclosing a change in the date by which shareholder nominations to be included in the Company's proxy materials must be made.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board is currently composed of six directors, five of whom are up for election at the Annual Meeting.^[2] For the reasons stated above, we are seeking your support at the Annual Meeting to WITHHOLD ALL votes from the election of the RGSE Nominees: Ian Bowles, John Schaeffer, Robert L. Scott, Pavel Bouska and Dennis Lacey.

The Company has adopted a plurality vote standard, meaning that the nominees receiving the largest number of votes cast will be elected as directors at the Annual Meeting.

Please note that the RGSE Nominees are not the nominees of Iroquois, have not consented to be named in these proxy materials, and are the nominees of RGSE. Because the RGSE Nominees are not Iroquois' nominees and have not consented to be named in this proxy statement, they are not participants in this solicitation. We can provide no assurance that any of the RGSE Nominees will serve as directors if elected. The names, backgrounds and qualifications of the RGSE Nominees, and other information about them, can be found in the Company's proxy statement.

WE URGE YOU TO VOTE "WITHHOLD ALL" ON THE ELECTION OF THE RGSE NOMINEES ON THE ENCLOSED BLUE PROXY CARD.

^[2] The Company's definitive proxy statement indicates that David Belluck will not be standing for reelection at the Annual Meeting.

PROPOSAL NO. 2

APPROVAL OF AN AMENDMENT AND RESTATEMENT TO THE COMPANY'S 2008 LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLAN

As discussed in further detail in the Company's proxy statement, the Company is asking shareholders to approve an amendment and restatement to the Company's 2008 Long-Term Incentive Plan to increase the number of shares authorized for issuance and the number of shares that a participant may receive in a fiscal year.

According to the Company's proxy materials, currently a maximum of 52,536 shares of Common Stock is authorized for issuance under the 2008 Long-Term Incentive Plan and no participant may receive awards under the 2008 Long-Term Incentive Plan for more than 16,666 shares of Common Stock in any one fiscal year. The amendment and restatement, if approved, would provide that the shares of Common Stock authorized for issuance under the 2008 Long-Term Incentive Plan would be fixed at 1,300,000, and that no participant in the 2008 Long-Term Incentive Plan may receive awards under the 2008 Long-Term Incentive Plan for more than 500,000 shares of Common Stock in any one fiscal year, an increase of over 2,300% and 2,900%, respectively, from the currently authorized levels.

The Board previously called a special meeting of shareholders on June 2, 2017 to vote on a proposal to increase the number of shares of Common Stock authorized issuance under the incentive plan to 1,900,000. Only 26.35% of the shares of RGSE's Common Stock entitled to vote were present in person or by proxy at the special meeting, resulting in a quorum of a majority of the shares entitled to vote at the meeting not being present. Accordingly, RGSE ended the special meeting of shareholders without holding any vote or conducting any business.

The Company has indicated that the amendment and restatement would allow the Company to grant stock options and other equity awards at levels it determines would be appropriate in order to incentivize performance, attract new employees and directors and retain existing employees and directors. Frankly, we are concerned the amendment and restatement will ultimately entail further dilution to shareholders and will ultimately reward what, in our view, is the Company's failing performance. Accordingly, we encourage our fellow shareholders to vote against approval of the amendment of the Company's 2008 Long-Term Incentive Plan.

WE RECOMMEND A VOTE "AGAINST" THE APPROVAL OF THE AMENDMENT TO THE COMPANY'S LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLAN AND INTEND TO VOTE OUR SHARES "AGAINST" THIS PROPOSAL.

PROPOSAL NO. 3

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF HEIN & ASSOCIATES LLP AS INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

As discussed in further detail in the Company's proxy statement, the Company is asking shareholders to ratify the appointment of Hein & Associates LLP as RGSE's independent auditors for the 2017 fiscal year.

As disclosed in the Company's proxy statement, although shareholder ratification is not required by law, if the appointment of Hein & Associates LLP is not ratified by shareholders, the Audit Committee of the Board may reconsider the appointment. Further, even if the appointment of Hein & Associates LLP is ratified by shareholders, the Audit Committee of the Board may, in its discretion, direct the appointment of a different independent registered public accounting firm at any time during the year should it determine that such change would be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

WE MAKE NO RECOMMENDATION WITH RESPECT TO THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF HEIN & ASSOCIATES LLP AS THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS OF THE COMPANY FOR FISCAL 2017 AND INTENDS TO "ABSTAIN" ON THIS PROPOSAL.

VOTING AND PROXY PROCEDURES

Shareholders are entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held of record on the Record Date with respect to each matter to be acted on at the Annual Meeting. Only shareholders of record on the Record Date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. Shareholders who sell their shares of Common Stock before the Record Date (or acquire them without voting rights after the Record Date) may not vote such shares of Common Stock. Shareholders of record on the Record Date will retain their voting rights in connection with the Annual Meeting even if they sell such shares of Common Stock after the Record Date. Based on publicly available information, Iroquois believes that the only outstanding class of securities of the Company entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is the shares of Common Stock.

Shares of Common Stock represented by properly executed BLUE proxy cards will be voted at the Annual Meeting as marked and, in the absence of specific instructions, will be voted WITHHOLD ALL with respect to the election of the RGSE Nominees, AGAINST the amendment to the Company's 2008 Long-Term Incentive Plan, and ABSTAIN on the ratification of the appointment of Hein & Associates LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the 2017 fiscal year.

Please note that the RGSE Nominees are not the nominees of Iroquois, have not consented to be named in this Proxy Statement, and are the nominees of Iroquois. The names, backgrounds and qualifications of the RGSE Nominees, and other information about them, can be found in the Company's proxy statement. We can provide no assurance that any of the RGSE Nominees will serve as directors if elected.

QUORUM; BROKER NON-VOTES; DISCRETIONARY VOTING

A quorum is the minimum number of shares of Common Stock that must be represented at a duly called meeting in person or by proxy in order to legally conduct business at the meeting. A majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote as of the Record Date represented either in person or by proxy, is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting.

Abstentions are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. Shares represented by "broker non-votes" also are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. However, if you hold your shares in street name and do not provide voting instructions to your broker, your shares will not be voted on any proposal on which your broker does not have discretionary authority to vote (a "broker non-vote"). Under the NASDAQ rules, your broker will not have discretionary authority to vote your shares at the Annual Meeting on any of the proposals.

If you are a shareholder of record, you must deliver your vote by mail, attend the Annual Meeting in person and vote, vote by Internet or vote by telephone in order to be counted in the determination of a quorum.

If you are a beneficial owner, your broker will vote your shares pursuant to your instructions, and those shares will count in the determination of a quorum. Brokers do not have discretionary authority to vote on any of the proposals at the Annual Meeting. Accordingly, unless you vote via proxy card or provide instructions to your broker, your shares of Common Stock will count for purposes of attaining a quorum, but will not be voted on those proposals.

VOTES REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

Election of Directors — The Company has adopted a plurality vote standard for directors elections, meaning that the nominees receiving the largest number of votes cast for their election as directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting. Because director nominees must receive a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting, a vote withheld from a particular nominee or from all nominees, abstentions, or broker non-votes will not affect the election of that nominee, although they will count towards the presence of a quorum for the Annual Meeting.

Amendment to the Company's 2008 Long-Term Incentive Plan — According to the Company's proxy statement, approval of the amendment and restatement to the Company's 2008 Long-Term Incentive Plan requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast "For" or "Against" the amendment and restatement. For purposes of determining the number of votes cast on the matter, only those cast "For" or "Against" are included. Abstentions and broker non-votes will therefore not be counted towards the total number of votes cast on the matter, although they will count towards the presence of a quorum for the Annual Meeting.

Ratification of the Appointment of Independent Auditors — According to the Company's proxy statement, the ratification of the selection of Hein & Associates LLP requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast "For" or "Against" the selection. The Company has indicated that abstentions and the failure of a broker to cast a discretionary vote will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on this proposal, although they will count towards the presence of a quorum for the Annual Meeting.

Under applicable Colorado law, none of the holders of Common Stock is entitled to appraisal rights in connection with any matter to be acted on at the Annual Meeting. If you sign and submit your BLUE proxy card without specifying how you would like your shares voted, your shares will be voted in accordance with Iroquois' recommendations specified herein and in accordance with the discretion of the persons named on the BLUE proxy card with respect to any other matters that may be voted upon at the Annual Meeting.

REVOCATION OF PROXIES

Shareholders of the Company may revoke their proxies at any time prior to exercise by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy) or by delivering a written notice of revocation. The delivery of a subsequently dated proxy which is properly completed will constitute a revocation of any earlier proxy. The revocation may be delivered either to Iroquois in care of Innisfree at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement or to the Company at 110 16th Street, Suite 300, Denver, Colorado 80202 or any other address provided by the Company. Although a revocation is effective if delivered to the Company, we request that either the original or photostatic copies of all revocations be mailed to Iroquois in care of Innisfree at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement so that we will be aware of all revocations and can more accurately determine if and when proxies have been received from the holders of record on the Record Date of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. Additionally, Innisfree may use this information to contact shareholders who have revoked their proxies in order to solicit later dated proxies in favor of Iroquois' voting recommendations.

IF YOU WISH TO WITHHOLD ALL VOTES FROM THE ELECTION OF THE RGSE NOMINEES TO THE BOARD, PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND RETURN PROMPTLY THE ENCLOSED BLUE PROXY CARD IN THE POSTAGE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The solicitation of proxies pursuant to this Proxy Statement is being made by Iroquois. Proxies may be solicited by mail, facsimile, telephone, telegraph, Internet, in person and by advertisements.

Iroquois has entered into an agreement with Innisfree for solicitation and advisory services in connection with this solicitation, for which Innisfree will receive a fee not to exceed $10,000, together with reimbursement for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, and will be indemnified against certain liabilities and expenses, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws. Innisfree will solicit proxies from individuals, brokers, banks, bank nominees and other institutional holders. Iroquois has requested banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward all solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of the shares of Common Stock they hold of record. Iroquois will reimburse these record holders for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in so doing. It is anticipated that Innisfree will employ approximately 10 persons to solicit shareholders for the Annual Meeting.

The entire expense of soliciting proxies is being borne by Iroquois. Costs of this solicitation of proxies are currently estimated to be approximately $175,000. Iroquois estimates that through the date hereof its expenses in connection with this solicitation are approximately $50,000. Iroquois intends to seek reimbursement from the Company of all expenses it incurs in connection with this solicitation. Iroquois does not intend to submit the question of such reimbursement to a vote of security holders of the Company.
